THE CARD

A New Mystery and Suspense Novel

"Where is Marcie Tuttle?"

THE STORY

Frank Miller meets Marcie Tuttle on a rental-car shuttle in Los Angeles. Their quick-witted conversation continues over coffee, and they exchange business cards before going their separate ways. Days later, Frank sees Marcie's face on the national news: she has disappeared.

When police find Frank's business card in Marcie's abandoned rental car, he is pulled into the investigation. What begins as a missing-person case grows into a far-reaching mystery involving private investigator Jacob Steele, coded clues, international connections, technology, and an escalating threat with global consequences.

One card connects them. One disappearance changes everything.

PUBLISHING

Published independently through Blue Print Productions, LLC and Michael N. Ruggiero, The Card marks a fresh chapter in Ruggiero's work and his first standalone novel following the completed 7th Soul trilogy.
